

Directions to Broadcast Center

Broadcast Center is centrally located in the St. Louis, Missouri metro area. Directions details are below map.

From I-64 (Highway 40)...

...take the Hampton Avenue south exit and travel south on Hampton Avenue. You'll cross underneath the I-44 overpass. Continue with the following directions:

From I-44...

... go south on Hampton Avenue. After traveling through the first stop light (Wilson Avenue), the northbound and southbound lanes of Hampton are divided. Continue about 1/4 mile to the next stop light (Columbia Avenue) and get into the left turn lane. Yield to oncoming traffic or wait for the left turn arrow, then make a U-turn to get into the northbound lanes of Hampton Avenue. Broadcast Center is at 2360 Hampton Avenue.

Free parking for students and guests is available in the upper parking lot behind the Broadcast Center building or along northbound Hampton Avenue in the lane furthest to the right.

If traveling south on Hampton, you'll need to turn around at the Columbia Avenue light so that you're traveling northbound. The red dot represents the approximate location of the Broadcast Center building.
